Benjamin Cluff Sr., the first Bishop of Center Ward, was born 20 March 1830 in Durham, Strafford Co., New Hampshire. He was the fourth child of David and Betsey or Elizabeth Hall Cluff. He was but a small child when his parents moved to Kirtland, Ohio, where the family became converts to Mormonism. Benjamin distinctly remembered the dedication of the Kirtland Temple and the persecution that followed. In 1840 the family moved to Nauvoo where he as a young man took an active part in building up Nauvoo and worked with his father and brothers on the Nauvoo Temple which they could see from their home. They left Nauvoo with the exodus of the Saints in 1846. They stopped at Mt. Pisgah, Council Bluffs, and vicinity and in June 1850 the family started on the long, tedious journey to the Great Salt Lake Valley. They arrived on 13 Oct. 1850 with the Edward Hupner Party, settling in Provo after a few days. In the spring of 1853 he was ordained a Seventy by Joseph Young and in the fall was called with others to go south to Little Salt Lake Valley to strengthen the settlement and guard against the Indians. Benjamin married Mary Ellen Foster 28 Feb. 1854. He performed military duty in Echo Canyon at the time of the Johnston Army Invasion. He went to Cache Valley where he was called on a mission to the Sandwich Islands in 1864, where he remained for 6 years. He also married Eliza Arnette Foster, a younger sister of Mary Ellen, his first wife. They were married 1 May 1856. After living in Coalville for three years he desired to be closer to Provo with his family so his children could attend Brigham Young University. He desired a farm so he went to Center Creek where he purchased 160 acres of land from his father, across the road east from where the Center Ward Chapel now stands. His father had recently got a Government patent on it and was contemplating going to Arizona. Benjamin purchased the land with one yoke of oxen valued at $100 and one double seated two horse spring wagon valued at $170. This purchase made it possible for his father to move to Arizona. On 15 July 1877 when Wasatch Stake was organized, Benjamin was ordained a High Priest and a Bishop and set apart as the first Bishop of Center Ward, organized at that time. He held that position for six
